

RED THREAD DROP IN SERVICE

Red Thread is offering a drop in service to support women (including women with disabilities) and children who are experiencing domestic violence and who have been raped or sexually assaulted.

The centre will offer the following:

Pictures of women killed in domestic incidents, and newspaper headlines from Stabroek and Kaieteur during 2005

- Support from women who have survived violence and referrals to Home & Shelter for professional counselling
- Support to deal with police and court (making sure that action is taken, a going to court with survivors where necessary).
- Information about the Domestic Violence Act and guidance to apply for relief under this law.

If you need any of these services please contact us.

If you know a woman or child who needs any of the services please send or bring the person to us, or contact us with the information.

Hours of the service:

Tuesday – Friday from 10.30am to 3.30pm.

Place: Red Thread Crossroads Women's Centre, 72 Princes & Adelaide Sts., Charlestown. Telephone: 227 7010
